Contract of Insurance

Your Policy and Schedule

This is your Commercial Liability Insurance Policy containing full details of the insurance being provided. The Schedule contains particulars relating to your insurance protection under the Policy including the levels of cover operative under each Section of the Policy and should be read in conjunction with the rest of the Policy.

Please note: Only those Sections showing as in force in the attached Schedule shall apply to your particular policy.

The Third EU Non-Life Directive and relevant Consumer regulations/legislation require us to provide you with the following information:

Your Commercial Liability Insurance Policy

Your contract is made up of the Proposal Form/Statement of Fact, this booklet and the Schedule. These are legal documents, please keep them in a safe place.

The contract with Us is based on information provided by or on behalf of the Insured including but not limited to:

- information provided in any proposal, or otherwise in response to specific questions asked by or on behalf of the Insurer;
- information provided and recorded in any Statement of Facts issued to the Insured;
- any declarations made by or on behalf of the Insured; and/or
- any additional information voluntarily provided.

N.B. You should read these documents carefully and contact your broker if you have any queries or you believe any of the information is incorrect.

Wakam (hereafter called the “Company”) having accepted the first or any renewal premium for this Policy agrees, subject to the terms and conditions herein, to indemnify the Insured named in the Schedule, if any of the within mentioned contingencies occurs during the Period of Insurance stated in the Schedule or during any subsequent period for which the Company shall have accepted the premium required for renewal of the Policy.

Compliance with all the terms, provisions conditions and endorsements of the Policy shall be a condition precedent to the right of the Insured to recover under this Policy.

All amounts in this Policy are in Euros, unless specifically stated to the contrary.

All monies which become or may become payable by the Company under this Policy shall in accordance with Section 93 of the Insurance Act 1936 be paid in the Republic of Ireland.

The appropriate stamp duty has been or will be paid in accordance with the Provisions of Section 5 of The Stamp Duties Consolidation Act 1999 (as amended).

The language for contractual terms and communications will be English.

The Law Applicable to the Contract

Under the relevant European and Irish legal provisions, the parties to the proposed contract of insurance, we, the Insurer listed in your Schedule of Cover and you, the Insured, are free to choose the law applicable to the contract. We choose the law of the Republic of Ireland.

Data Protection

How we will use or share Your information

This is the Data Protection and Privacy Notice that Wakam, an insurer incorporated and registered in France with company number whose registered office is at 120 - 122 Rue Réaumur, 75083 Paris, France; email dpo@wakam.com (referred to in this notice as the "Insurer", "we", "our" and "us") has issued to policyholders of its liability insurance policy and those that have applied for that policy (referred to in this notice as "You" and "Your"). CATALPA is our insurance intermediary and their Data Protection and Privacy Notice can be found at <http://catalpa.ie/data-protection-notice/>.

The Information that we may process about You

In connection with the Policy and our insurance intermediary relationship with CATALPA, we collect or receive the following information about You: your insurance requirements including details about the subject matter of the insurance, if available, a history of claims.

We receive most of the information about You from You (or on your behalf from your broker), when a Proposal Form/ Statement of Fact is submitted to us, make a claim or in correspondence with You. We also obtain information about You from anti-fraud databases.

Who do we disclose Your information to?

Where we collect Your personal information, You agree that any data provided by You in connection with Your proposal or Policy may be used by Us and "CATALPA", and all each of our respective group companies and/or insurance brokers or third-party providers of services in connection with the Policy (including but not limited to other insurance carriers, third-party claims adjusters/loss adjusters and investigators, solicitors, fraud detection and prevention services, reinsurance companies, governmental authorities and organisations acting on their behalf and insurance regulatory authorities), collectively referred to as 'data recipients', in performing their obligations to You in respect of Your contract of insurance and providing You with ancillary services. We may also provide your personal information to a proposed purchaser, investor or lender that wishes to understand what personal data we hold about You in connection with the Policy to complete a purchase, investment, or lending transaction in relation to our business or assets.

If You make a claim, we may need to release information to another person or organisation involved in that claim. This includes, but is not restricted to, others involved in the incident, their insurer, their solicitor or representative and medical teams, or other investigators. We also may have to investigate Your claim and conviction history.

Why do we need information about You and what do we use it for?

In this table we set out the categories of personal data that we collect about You, what we use it for and the legal basis for our processing the personal data.

We collect your personal data (your name, address, email, Policy number, your vehicle details and your claims history) to provide an insurance quotation, claims handling and to process of any complaints. We process your personal data for accounting and other management information purposes. In many cases processing is necessary for the performance of a contract.

We also process this data:

- To populate national databases where required by law to do so ;
- For any purpose required by law ; and
- To comply with laws and regulations, and the regulators and oversight authorities, such as combating money laundering, the financing of terrorism, and the prevention of insurance fraud.

One of the legal bases for which we process Your data is because it is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation, which we are subject to.

Transfers outside of the EEA

Your personal information may be processed by Us, both inside and outside of the European Economic Area (EEA), in accordance with applicable data protection laws and regulations. We will not disclose your personal data to any third parties, who are not authorised to process them. We will implement measures to ensure that the transfer of your personal data to a location outside of the EEA receives an adequate level of protection, as it does in the EEA. You can find out what safeguards we rely upon for such transfers (for example, by using EU Commission Standard Contractual Clauses) by contacting our DPO, as described below.

How long do we hold Your personal data for?

We will keep Your personal data only for as long as it is required to perform Your Policy, to handle claims and to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations. For most of Your personal data related to the Policy, we will hold Your personal data for seven years after the end of that Policy.

If You do not accept a quote or complete an application for a Policy, Your personal data will be kept for 12 months, or longer if required to be retained in order to comply with our legal obligations or in the event of a dispute or claim.

Your Rights

You have the right to object to the continuing processing of Your information, where we rely on our legitimate interests as the only legal basis for processing that information, or where we use the data for direct marketing or are processing data for the purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics.

You have the right to request Your personal data is erased and to prevent processing in certain circumstances. This is not an absolute right and we may continue to process Your data if we have a lawful basis to do so.

In certain circumstances You have the right to request we restrict the processing of personal data supplied by You to Us.

You have the right to apply for a copy of Your information, free of charge (unless we believe Your request to be manifestly unfounded, excessive or repetitive).

You have the right to have Your personal data rectified if it is inaccurate or incomplete.

You have the right to data portability in respect of Your personal data provided to Us and processed by automated means. This means that You can request the data in a commonly used and machine-readable form and even that we transfer it at Your request to another organisation if this is feasible. This service is free of charge.

You still have the right to request human intervention or to challenge decisions generated solely by automated means without any human involvement, where that decision produces a legal effect or otherwise significantly affects you, and you can exercise this right by writing to us. Where we have relied on Your explicit consent as the legal basis for any automated decision making you can withdraw your consent by writing to us and tell us that you have withdrawn Your consent.

As we transfer Your information out of the EEA You can ask to obtain a copy of, or reference to, the safeguards under which Your personal data is transferred outside of the EEA. We may redact data transfer agreements or related documents for reasons of confidentiality, security and /or commercial sensitivity, where we are legally entitled to do so.

You have a right to complain your local supervisory authority about our processing of your personal data. In the Ireland, the supervisory authority for data protection is the:-

Section 1 – Employers Liability (Applicable only if specified in the Schedule)

The insurance provided by Section 1 is on a cost inclusive basis, whereby the cost and expenses of the claimant and the costs and expenses (incurred by the Company, or with the Company's written consent) of the Insured, are included within the Limit of Indemnity stated in the Schedule.

The Company will provide indemnity to the Insured

1. against legal liability for any damages in respect of Bodily Injury to any Employee within the Geographical Limits, caused during any Period of Insurance and arising out of and in the course of employment by the Insured in the Business.
2. against legal liability for claimant's costs and expenses in connection with 1. above
3. in respect of :
 - a. costs of legal representation at:
 - i. any coroner's inquest or inquiry in respect of death ;
 - ii. proceedings in any court arising out of any alleged breach of statutory duty resulting in injury which may be the subject of indemnity under this section.
 - b. all other costs and expenses in relation to any matter which may form the subject of a claim for indemnity under 1. above incurred with the Company's written consent.

Provided that in respect of any one Occurrence:

1. the total amount payable under this section, including all extensions and endorsements, shall not exceed the Limit of Indemnity as stated in the Schedule ;
2. the Company may at its absolute discretion and at any time pay the Limit of Indemnity (less any sums already paid or incurred) or any lesser amount for which the claims arising out of such Occurrence can be settled, the Company will then relinquish control of such claims and be under no further liability in respect thereof.
3. the Excess in respect of damages and claimants' costs and expenses will be payable before the Company shall be liable to make a payment.

No indemnity will be provided by the Company in respect of any judgement, award, or settlement made in any country or territory outside the Geographical Limits of this Policy, or in respect of any order made anywhere in the world, including within the Geographical Limits, to enforce such judgement, award, or settlement.

Extensions applicable to Section 1 – Employers Liability

1. Safety Health and Welfare at Work Act - Legal Defence Costs

The Company will indemnify the Insured and if the Insured so requests any Employee, director or partner of the Insured in respect of:

- a) legal costs and other expenses incurred with the written consent of the Company: and
- b) in the defence of any criminal proceedings brought or in relation to an appeal against conviction, arising from such proceeding in respect of a breach of any Applicable Legislation (as defined below),

Provided that the proceedings relate to both the health safety and welfare of any Employee and to an offence alleged to have been committed during the Period of Insurance in the course of the Business.

This extension will not apply:

- a) to fines or penalties of any kind including the costs of remedial or publicity orders or the steps required to be taken by such orders;
- b) to proceedings consequent upon any deliberate act or omission by:
 - a. the Insured
 - b. any partner or director of the Insured;
which could reasonably have been expected to constitute a breach of the Applicable Legislation having regard to the nature and circumstances of such act or omission;
 - c. where indemnity is provided by any other insurance.

For the purposes of this extension, Applicable Legislation shall mean the Safety, Health and Welfare at Work Act 2005 or similar safety legislation of the Republic of Ireland or the Health & Safety at Work Act 1974 & Health & Safety at Work Act Northern Ireland 1978, in respect of work being undertaken in Northern Ireland or Great Britain.

The total amount payable by the Company under this extension shall not exceed €100,000 any one occurrence and in the aggregate within the Period of Insurance.

2. Indemnity to Principals

The Company will indemnify any Principal against legal liability as defined in the Insuring Clause Provided that:

- (a) the Insured would have been entitled to indemnity under this Section, had the claim been made against the Insured.
- (b) the Principal is not entitled to indemnity under any other policy.
- (c) the Principal shall, as if the Insured, observe fulfil and be subject to the terms Exclusions, Conditions and Endorsements of this Policy
- (d) nothing in this Extension will operate to increase the Company's liability beyond the amount for which the Company would have been liable had this Extension not applied.

3. Personal Representatives

In the event of the death of the Insured the Company will indemnify the Insured's legal personal representatives against Legal Liability

Provided that:-

- (a) the Insured was entitled to indemnity under this Section ;
- (b) such legal personal representatives shall, as though they were the Insured, observe, fulfil and be subject to the terms Exclusions, Conditions and Endorsements of this Policy.

4. Indemnity to Other Persons

The Company will indemnify the following persons in respect of Legal Liability:-

- (a) any Employee or partner or director of the Insured provided that the Insured would have been entitled to indemnity under this Section, had the claim been made against the Insured.
- (b) any officer or member of the Insured's canteen, social, sports, or welfare organisation or first aid, medical and dental services, ambulance, fire, security services, or safety organisation in his/her respective capacity as such in connection with the Business.

Provided that:-

- (i) such persons are not entitled to indemnity under any other policy.
- (ii) such persons are not excluded under section 1(b) of this extension as a result of any deliberate act or omission.
- (iii) such persons shall, as though they were the Insured, observe, fulfil and be subject to the terms Exclusions, Conditions and Endorsements of this Policy.
- (iv) nothing in this Extension will operate to increase the Company's liability beyond the amount for which the Company would have been liable had this Extension not applied.

5. Work Overseas

General Conditions (applicable to all sections of the policy)

All conditions are precedent to indemnity under this insurance

1. Identification

This Policy comprising the Introduction, Proposal Form/Statement of Fact, Schedule, Definitions, Insuring Clauses, Extensions, Exclusions, Conditions, and any Endorsements shall be read as one contract and any word or expression to which a specific meaning has been attached therein shall bear such specific meaning wherever it may appear.

2. Due Observance

The observance and fulfilment of the terms and Conditions of this Policy, in so far as they relate to anything to be done or complied with by the Insured or any other indemnified party shall be conditions precedent to any liability of the Company to make any payment under this Policy.

Duty to Comply with Policy Conditions

(a) The Insured must comply with the terms, limitations, Exceptions, Conditions and Endorsements of this Policy in so far as they relate to anything to be done or complied with by the Insured, to include the Insured cooperating with the Insurer in the investigation of insured events, including by responding to reasonable requests for information in an honest and reasonably careful manner.

(b) Other than where expressly provided in this Policy, compliance by the Insured with the terms, limitations, Exceptions, Conditions and Endorsements of this Policy shall be a condition precedent to any liability of the Insurer to make any payment under the Policy.

(c) Breach of any notification-related term or Condition will entitle the Insurer to refuse payment of a claim where the Insurer was prejudiced by the breach of the notification-related term or Condition in question.

3. Non-Disclosure

This insurance will be voidable if there has been misrepresentation, misdescription or non-disclosure of any material information. If you are uncertain as to whether certain information is material or not, please contact your broker.

4. Geographical Limits

The Geographical Limits under this policy are the Republic of Ireland, Great Britain, and Northern Ireland.

5. Reasonable Precautions

The Insured must take all reasonable care to prevent Bodily Injury, loss or damage and to maintain premises plant and everything used in the Business in proper repair, and to act in accordance with all statutory obligations and regulations, including the statutory inspection of all lifting plant, passenger lifts, and steam pressure vessels.

The Insured must immediately make good or remedy any defect or danger, which becomes apparent or take such additional precautions as the circumstances may require.

6. Jurisdiction

The law of the Republic of Ireland applies to the contract.

7. Underground Services

The Insured shall take all reasonable steps to ascertain the position of all pipes, cables, and other underground services, including the inspection of plans of all services and in particular plans held by any local or public authority.

8. Other Insurances

If any insurance under this Policy is also the subject (in whole or in part) of indemnity under any other policy, the liability of the Company shall apply in excess of and not as contributory with, such other policy.

9. Premium Adjustment

If the Premium for this Policy has been calculated on the basis of an estimate supplied by the Insured of wages, salaries and other earnings and/or turnover

(a) the Insured shall maintain an accurate record of such wages, salaries, and other earnings and/or turnover and the Company or its representatives may at any time examine such record.

(b) the Insured shall, within 30 days of the expiry of each Period of Insurance, supply to the Company an auditors' certificate of such wages, salaries and other earnings and/or turnover for that Period of Insurance and in this regard time is of the essence.

(i) if the amount of such wages salaries and other earnings and/or turnover shall differ from the estimate on which the Premium has been calculated, the difference in Premium shall be paid by or allowed to the Insured as the case may be, subject to retention of the Minimum Premium stated in the Schedule or as advised to the Insured.

(ii) should the Insured fail to supply such auditors' certificate in accordance with this Condition, then the Company will not provide any indemnity for any Bodily Injury, Nuisance or loss of or damage to material property, which might otherwise be the subject of indemnity under this Policy in the Period of Insurance for which the auditors' certificate remains outstanding.

10. Cancellation

This Policy may be cancelled:

By the Insurer

We may cancel this Policy by giving fourteen (14) days written notice to You at Your last known address and to Your Insurance Broker. We will only do this for a valid reason, which we will provide, for example:

- Failure to pay the premium; or
- Non-cooperation or failure to supply information or documentation upon request; or
- A change in risk occurring such that We are no longer able to provide You with insurance cover.

We will not impose any financial charge on You where the contract of insurance is cancelled by Us.

If this Policy is cancelled by Us then, provided You have not made a claim, We will refund the premium You have paid to Us, to You via your insurance broker less the amount of premium, which relates to the time period for which You have been covered under this Policy.

By the Insured

a) Cooling-Off Period

The Insured may cancel this insurance within the Cooling-Off Period, which is fourteen (14) days from the commencement of the Period of Insurance specified in the insurance Schedule, effective from the date of receipt by Us or our agent of the cancellation request in writing.

Provided no incident(s) giving rise to a claim occurred during the Cooling-Off Period, the premium You have paid to the Insurer in full via Your broker will be returned and no administration charge will be levied or deducted by Us.

b) Outside of Cooling Off Period

The policy may be cancelled by the Insured, but such instruction will only be effective from the date of receipt by Us or our agent of the cancellation request in writing.

We will return to You a proportionate part of the premium paid in respect of the unexpired term of the Policy subject to the following:

No refund will be allowed if any incident giving rise to a claim occurred during the Period of Insurance.

It is a condition of cover under this policy that the premium has been paid. No refund will be allowed if the premium for the Period of Insurance has not been paid to Us.

Any Employers Liability Certificate issued to the Insured must be returned to the Company in the event of cancellation.

Any cancellation by either the Insurer or the Insured shall be without prejudice to any rights or claims arising prior to the expiration of such notice of cancellation.

11. Arbitration

All differences arising out of this Policy shall be referred to the decision of an arbitrator to be appointed by the parties or, failing agreement, by the President, for the time being, of the Incorporated Law Society of Ireland. Where any difference is referred to arbitration, the making of an award shall be a condition precedent to any right of action against the Company. Claims not referred to arbitration within twelve (12) calendar months from the date of disclaimer of the liability shall be deemed to have been abandoned.

12. Suspension of Cover

The Company may at any reasonable time inspect any property and in the event of any defect or danger being apparent the Company may give written notice to the Insured when all liability of the Company arising from such defect or danger shall be suspended.

13. Avoidance and Recovery

The indemnity granted by this Policy is deemed to be in accordance with the provisions of any law relating to compulsory insurance of liability to employees in any of the Geographical Limit areas, but the Insured shall repay to the Company all sums paid by the Company, which the Company would not have been liable to pay but for the provisions of such law.

14. Claims Conditions

Consumer Insurance Contracts Act 2019

Claims are dealt with in accordance with the Central Bank of Ireland Consumer Protection Code 2012.

Also noteworthy, is the relatively recently introduced Consumer Insurance Contracts Act 2019- where it applies to You and Your policy, the following will also apply:

- We have a duty to handle claims promptly and fairly, notify You of a third-party claim as soon as possible and inform You when a claim is settled or closed. We will continue to process claims quickly and fairly and to keep You informed throughout the process.
- The Act reminds You of Your duty to report claims within a reasonable time and requires You to respond to reasonable requests for information in an honest and reasonably careful manner.
- We will also disclose any information of which We become aware that supports or prejudices the validity of Your claim and likewise there is a duty on You to disclose such information to Us.
- Where a claim contains information that is false or misleading and You (the Insured) know, or You consciously disregard whether it is false or misleading, We may refuse to pay the claim and We may cancel the contract of insurance.
- The Act also allows third parties to make a claim directly against Your insurance policy where -
 - a) the person insured under a contract of insurance has died, cannot be found or is insolvent and
 - b) where the person insured under a contract of insurance lacks capacity or fails or refuses to communicate with the third party who suffered injury or loss.

1. Notice of Claims

In the event of an Occurrence which may give rise to a claim for indemnity under this Policy it is a condition precedent to liability that the Insured shall give immediate notice in writing (with full particulars in writing) to the Company or the Insureds broker and as far as practicable, no alteration or repair shall be carried out until the Company has had an opportunity of investigating. Every letter, claim, writ, summons, and process shall be unacknowledged and notified or forwarded to the Company immediately on receipt. The Insured shall inform the Company immediately of any impending prosecution, inquest, or fatal inquiry or civil proceedings and send to the Company every relevant document, which must remain unanswered by the Insured.

2. Co-Operation

The Insured has a duty to cooperate with the Insurer in the investigation of a claim, including responding to requests for information in an honest and reasonable manner.

The Insured must not do anything to harm the Insurer's interests and must assist the Insurer, or anyone acting on the Insurer's behalf, in every way reasonably possible in relation to any claim under this Contract of Insurance, including providing all necessary documents and attending court to give evidence.

3. Control of Claims

No admission, repudiation, offer, promise, payment, or indemnity shall be made or given by or on behalf of the Insured without the written consent of the Company. The Company shall be entitled, if it so desires, to take over and conduct in the name of the Insured the defence or settlement of any claim or to prosecute in the name of the Insured for its own benefit any claim for indemnity or damages or otherwise. The Company shall have full discretion in the conduct of any proceedings and in the settlement of any claim and the Insured shall give all such information and assistance as the Company may require. The Company shall not be liable for any loss alleged to have been sustained by the Insured in consequence of any action or omission of the Company in the course of any claim or proceedings.

While the Insurer has the right to make the final determination in relation to coverage or handling of the whole or part of any claim, the Insurer will engage with the Insured during its investigation of the claim and give the Insured the opportunity to submit to the Insurer any relevant evidence which could inform the Insurer's determination as regards the claim. However, the Insurer shall have full power to settle any claim or part thereof and in the event of any dispute between the Insurer and the Insured Person such settlement shall have the effect for all purposes as if it were made with the concurrence of the Insured Person notwithstanding that such settlement may be made without admission of liability.

4. Discharge of Liability

The Company may at any time, at its sole discretion, pay to the Insured the amount of the Limit of Indemnity (less any sum or sums already paid) or any lesser sum for which the claim or claims can be settled and be under no further liability in respect of such claim or claims.

5. Fraudulent Claims

If You, or anyone acting for You, makes a claim which is fraudulent and/or intentionally exaggerated and/or where We have been given any documents which are false or stolen, We have the right to:

- a) refuse to pay the claim.
- b) terminate the Policy by written notice in which case cover under the Policy shall be treated as having terminated with effect from the date on which the Fraudulent Claim was submitted, without return of any premium.

Should We terminate the policy We shall refuse all liability to You for any claim made after the submission of the Fraudulent Claim, but We cannot refuse any valid claim made before submission of the Fraudulent Claim.

6. Subrogation

If We become liable for any payment for a loss arising under this Policy, We shall be subrogated, to the extent of such payment, to all of Your rights and remedies against any party for such loss and We shall be entitled, at Our own expense, to sue in Your name. You shall give Us all such assistance in Your power as We may reasonably require to secure Our rights and remedies, either before or after any payment under this Policy.

This refers and applies to any right We have to be subrogated to Your rights against some other person but You have not exercised those rights and might reasonably be expected not to exercise those rights because:

I. You and the other person are members of the same family (to be construed in accordance with the Employment Equality Act 1998) or are cohabitants (to be construed in accordance with the Civil Partnership and Certain Rights and Obligations of Cohabitants Act 2010); or

II. You expressly or impliedly consented to the use, by the other person, of a motor vehicle insured under Your Policy:

a) Where the other person is not insured in respect of their liability to You, We do not have the right to be subrogated to Your rights against that other person.

b) Where the other person is so insured, We may not recover from the other person an amount greater than the amount that they may recover under their insurance policy.

c) This does not apply where the conduct of the other person that gave rise to the loss was serious or wilful misconduct.

d) If You are an employer, we will not exercise Our right of subrogation against an employee except where a loss was caused by an employee intentionally or recklessly and with knowledge that the loss would probably result.

7. Personal Protective Equipment

All employees, visitors and any other operatives for whom the insured is responsible must be made fully aware of the dangers of not using personal protective equipment, are advised of the insured's enforcement policy in relation to same and are advised of the sanctions applicable for failure to comply, all in an effort to ensure that such equipment supplied by the insured is used at all relevant times.

8. Scaffolding

All scaffolding and other 'work at height' equipment must be supplied, erected, maintained and dismantled in accordance with the Safety Health & Welfare at Work (General Application) Regulations 2007 and all amending and/or updating legislation, including the Safety Health & Welfare at Work (Construction) Regulations 2013 or such analogous legislation in force within the Geographical Limits.

9. 5 years premium and 5 years claims information document

Under the Consumer Insurance Contracts Act 2019, as part of the renewal process, an Insurer must provide the Insured with a list of any claims against the policy over the previous five (5) years (or less, where the policy has not been in force for five (5) years).

As part of the renewal process, details of Your previous five (5) years premium will also be provided (or less, where the policy has not been in force for five (5) years), or an annualised version of the premium if changes were made to the policy within any year)

10. Continuing Restrictive Conditions

a) Anything in the Policy that imposes a continuing restrictive condition, (such as a condition precedent, general condition, warranty), during the term of the Policy shall be treated as a suspensive condition. This means that if any such condition is breached, Our liability under the Policy shall be suspended from the time of the breach until the time when the breach is remedied (if it can be) and We may decline to pay a claim for any loss which occurs, or which is attributable to something which happened, during that period.

b) Paragraph (a) does not suspend Our liability for any loss where the risk of that loss was not increased by the breach.

Breach of terms not relevant to the actual loss

a) This applies to any term in the Policy that is intended to reduce the risk of a particular type of loss or reduce the risk of loss occurring at a particular time or in a particular location.

b) A breach of such a term shall only suspend Our liability in respect of that particular type of loss or loss occurring at a particular time or in a particular location, as the case may be, and shall not provide us with a defence to a claim if the breach was remedied by the time the loss or event giving rise to the loss occurred.
